President & CEO of AACOM

Kevin Klauer, DO
CEO of AOA

DOs in Ohio

- ▶ 4,900+ licensed osteopathic physicians (DOs)
- ▶ 16% of the total physicians practicing in Ohio
- ▶ 28% of the state's family physicians

2019 AOA House of Delegates

- ▶ Ronald Burns, D.O. installed as the 123rd President of the AOA
- ▶ First OU-HCOM alum to serve as AOA President
- ▶ Internship at Doctors Hosp. of Stark County (Massillon) & completed residency at Florida Hosp. East Orlando

2019 AOA House of Delegates

- ▶ 34 OOA members who served as delegates. Among the meeting highlights:
- ▶ The AOA reaffirmed its commitment to the inclusion of osteopathic principles and practice in every osteopathic board certification examination, regardless of specialty.
- ▶ The AOA reinstated authority of specialty boards to allow a requirement for specialty-specific content in CME for certification/re-certification.
- ▶ An Ohio resolution (H-228) that ensures the AOA encourages the ACGME to advocate for transparency of parental leave policies was approved.
- ▶ The AOA waived the reserve requirement for FY 2020 to fund the budgeted net operating deficit of $4.5 million. The AOA is budgeting an $8.1 million decrease in revenue but has $37 million in reserves.

2019 AOA House of Delegates

- ▶ This was the first year all COM extension campuses were granted a delegate slot—so the OOA was fortunate to have three student delegates: Marcus Lowe, Eddie Passen, and Andrew Williams.
- ▶ Special thanks to Charles D. Milligan, DO; Sandra L. Cook, DO; Henry L. Wehrum, DO; Michael E. Dietz, DO; and Nicklaus J. Hess, DO. They were appointed to serve on reference committees and provided reports to the Ohio delegation during its state meetings on Thursday evening and Saturday morning.
- ▶ Thanks also to William J. Burke, DO, for his 9 years of AOA Board service
- ▶ Congratulations to OOA Immediate Past President, Jennifer J. Hauler, DO, for her election to the AOA Board of Trustees

Single Accreditation System

- ▶ This past spring featured the final AOA Match
- ▶ The AOA now enters the final year of five-year transition to the ACGME's single accreditation system for graduate medical education
- ▶ Board of Trustees created a path for MDs who complete osteopathic-recognized ACGME residencies to qualify for board certification

ACGME Transitions in Ohio

- 30: AOA terminated for ACGME
- 15: Initial accreditation
- 9: Closed (not as a result of SAS)
- 9: Closed (did not pursue ACGME)
- 8: Does not intend to apply
- 3: ACGME increased for closed AOA program
- 3: Voluntary withdrawal from ACGME
- 2: Pre-accreditation
- 2: Continued accreditation
- 1: Continued pre-accreditation
- 1: Application in progress

OOA unveils new resource for students

- Map notates programs with OOA logo
- Complete info below map: program name, specialty, # of slots, program director with contact info, DIO with contact info, program webpage, etc.
- Students section of OOA website, “Osteopathic Recognition” tab
- We’ll update as ACGME approves new programs
- Supports the osteopathic continuum!

AOA Board Certification

The AOA's 2019-2021 CME Guide was released in January (w/ a revised version in June). The AOA is currently revising the AOA Board certification process as well.

Several items being considered by each individual board:

- Eligibility: Qualified DOs and MDs eligible for osteopathic/OMT exam (eligibility in progress).
- Test Convenience: Written exams up to 4X/year; OMT exam offered 2X/year; Develop remote oral exams
- Regarding continuing certification, there was special emphasis on their desire to create ongoing exams with shorter cycles.
- Pricing is yet to be determined. Although if an oral or practical exam are also included there would be additional costs
- Two options were approved by AOA BOT for initial certification:
 1. Board certification in osteopathic (specialty)
 2. Board certification in (specialty)

AOA Board Certification

- No specific timetable for implementation, but most changes expected before end of 2020
- The American Osteopathic Board of Obstetrics & Gynecology (AOBOG) launched a new online exam process for OCC.
 - The new format leverages technology to deliver assessment items and questions relevant to obstetrics and gynecology scope of practice at prescribed intervals (8 questions/week). Physicians choose from obstetric-only, gynecology-only, or blended exam.
 - Replaces traditional high-stakes recertification exam offered every 6 years.
 - Joins the AOBA and AOBR as the 3rd AOA certifying board to offer innovative assessment models that support lifelong learning and continuous professional development.
- AOBEM considering similar pilot
- AOBFP announced early entry certification (EEC) in August that allows candidates to seek board certification in residency (ACGME programs with OR).
 - Residents must successfully complete 2 AOBFP in-service exams & take EEC initial board exam in final year. Upon passing, diplomates enter OCC.
- We'll keep you updated!

- ▶ In 2016, the Ohio legislature passed SB 523 which legalized medical marijuana for 21 debilitating diseases or conditions
- ▶ State-licensed growing facilities, dispensaries, patient registration, & physician registration
- ▶ Physicians are required to receive 2 hours of medical marijuana education to attain certification to “recommend”
- ▶ The state has awarded 18 of 31 cultivator licenses, 45 of 56 dispensary licenses & 12 of 41 processor licenses
- ▶ Sales began in January 2019
 - ▶ Physicians have made 70,000 recommendations & 46,000 patients have registered in the program since the registry opened
 - ▶ $25 million in sales (2,960 pounds)

The Patient and Caregiver Registry is the online portal where physicians with a certificate to recommend medical marijuana will register patients and caregivers, and issue recommendations. Patients and caregivers will also complete their registrations, and update their registration details, using the Registry.

CME in Ohio

- ▶ The OOA—with support from the OOF—plans to expand osteopathic CME in Ohio in 2020.

Volunteer & DO Your Part

We need you to DO your part! The mission of the Ohio Osteopathic Association is to promote the distinctive philosophy and practice of osteopathic medicine in Ohio. To achieve our mission, we need your help. Our physicians are the most highly trained and educated professionals (in health care or otherwise) so we need to share this with the state of Ohio.

Please consider moving the profession forward in any of the following ways:

OOA MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE

The Membership Committee will coordinate statewide membership projects and consider membership enhancements. It will meet approximately three times annually. All members are eligible to participate. Meetings may be in person or via videoconference.

OOA MANAGED CARE COMMITTEE

This ad hoc committee will serve as a resource during the state's rebidding of managed care contracts. Members should have experience providing care to Medicaid patients and be willing to provide feedback regarding methods to enhance care quality and operational efficiency.

SPECIAL ADVOCATE

We're continually seeking experts with special knowledge, experience, or interest regarding insurance, Medicaid, scope of practice issues, physician payment, and pharmacology among other topics. Your participation could include testimony at the Statehouse, interested party meetings, legislation review, media engagement, etc.

Physicians who agree to testify before the Ohio General Assembly will do so on the record in a public setting. Participation in this advocacy activity will be shared with the membership and general public through various OOA communication platforms.

CME PRESENTER

The OOA is expanding its CME offerings. Your patient-centered expertise underscores the osteopathic approach to wellness. Share your knowledge with your peers. Register your interest in serving as a lecturer at a CME seminar.

CME QUESTIONNAIRE

Take a few minutes to tell us about emerging medical topics and issues you'd like to learn more about. What patient ailments do you see most often that could be addressed through educational programming? What treatment modalities would you like to have covered at a CME event?

SHADOWING

Get the next osteopathic generation off to a great start by allowing interested undergraduate students to shadow you. Many COMs require applicants to get to know a DO and request a letter of recommendation as part of the application process. This provides students with exposure to the osteopathic profession and enhances awareness of the osteopathic medical philosophy.

STUDENT HOSTING

Scholar Series

- ▶ Scholar 7: walks through the steps of developing a hypothesis, creating specific aims, and drawing conclusions in preparation for an Institutional Review Board submission.
- ▶ Scholar 4: provides the style and floorplan of a proper abstract, poster, manuscript and oral presentation.
- ▶ Scholar Specific: discusses case presentation and takes a closer look at implementing an innovative ACGME osteopathic recognition curriculum.
- ▶ Scholar Teacher: provides faculty development in programs with OR

Scholar Teacher

- ▶ The SAS has created a template for all GME programs.
- ▶ Osteopathic Recognition within this system requires the performance of osteopathic faculty development. Faculty development must be an easily accessible, clinically applicable and time conserving product. The new series Scholar Teacher provides several professionally prepared 15-20 minute videos that highlight thoracic landmarks (muscular, skeletal), assessment of rib dysfunction and treatment.
- ▶ They may be viewed individually at a faculty meeting and the entire Scholar Teacher series may be utilized as a faculty development curriculum viewed as a group or singularly.
- ▶ Faculty may receive CME for Scholar Teacher with a completed questionnaire on the AOA CME website.
- ▶ Viewable on OOA site for those not seeking CME credit.
- ▶ The most attractive component of this series is that it is free so that all our programs may receive Osteopathic Recognition.
- ▶ Scholar Teacher authors include Robert W. Hestoffer, Jr., DO, who established the Scholar Series; Michael P. Rowane, DO; and Paul Evans, DO.

- Reduces to 50 (from 100) the number of Category 1 credit hours required every two years for licensure.
- Eliminates dates established in statute for medical license renewal and instead provides that each license is valid for a two-year period that expires on the issuance anniversary date.
- Reduces to three the number of hours a physician may earn providing health care services as a volunteer.
- Requires both a supervising physician and PA to retain a copy of their supervision agreement in their records.
- Eliminates telemedicine certificates and requires the Board to convert them to regular licenses to practice as a DO or MD.

SUBMITTED BY: Committee on AOA Governance & Organizational Structure

REFERRED TO: BOT Reference Committee 3

1 WHEREAS, the American Osteopathic Association (AOA) House of Delegates, based on a
2 resolution from the AOA Board of Trustees, approved amendments to the AOA
3 Constitution and Bylaws concerning creation of a Public Member on the Board of 4 Trustees; and

5 WHEREAS, since approval of the position, no individual has been nominated to serve in the 6 public member position; and

7 WHEREAS, the AOA already utilizes public member positions in the Commission on 8 Osteopathic College Accreditation and Bureau of Osteopathic Specialists, which are 9 engaged in discussions, standard-setting, and decision-making where the public 10 representative is useful; and

11 WHEREAS, the AOA's private business decisions, as discussed by the Board of Trustees, do
12 not receive the same benefits from a public member's recommendations and opinion; 13 and

15 advisors to attend meetings and provide comment on public issues related to changes in 16 healthcare, education and government that impact the osteopathic profession; now,
17 therefore be it

18 RESOLVED, that the American Osteopathic (AOA) Association Board of Trustees
19 recommend to the AOA House of Delegates that the Public Member position on the 20 AOA Board of Trustees be eliminated.

Whereas
Clauses

Resolved
Clause

Whereas Clauses

- ▶ Relate directly to the call for action (whereas)
- ▶ Contain one significant reason or statistic which supports the call to action
- ▶ Cite the source of statistics; if facts and figures are used to support the call for action.
- ▶ Should avoid redundancy & be limited to the number of statements clearly essential to make your point (often times the shorter, the better)

Resolved Clauses

- ▶ Most important part of the resolution
- ▶ Each resolved clause should contain the following:
 - ▶ Be able to stand on its own
 - ▶ Include only one sentence
 - ▶ Have a clear and concise call to action
 - ▶ If the resolution envisions more than one related call to action, there should be a separate clause for each; each separate resolved clause should be able to stand alone
 - ▶ If the resolution requires action by the AOA and the intent of the writer is to change policy at the national level,
 - ▶ Resolved, that the OOA recommend to the AOA that

Taking the next step

- ▶ If the intent of the resolution is to have an action taken at both the OOA and AOA level

Resolved, that a copy of this resolution be submitted to the American Osteopathic Association for consideration at the 2020 AOA House of Delegates

Deadlines:

- ▶ February 14: To submit resolutions to the OOA House of Delegates for consideration from the OOA Board of Trustees
- ▶ March 16: To submit resolutions to the OOA House of Delegates for inclusion in the 2020 Manual

It's important to remember

Debate intent, not wording

Expedite the work of the Reference Committees

OOA District Academies

- ✓ Streamline sharing of district membership roster with OOA (for those districts collecting dues/memberships separately)
- ✓ Seek parity amongst district dues
- ✓ Meetings requirements revision
- ✓ For any district struggling with compliance should consider a management agreement with the OOA (coordinates events, district communication, financial arrangements)

Membership Matters

- ▶ We must grow membership to strengthen the profession
- ▶ Continue to advance our profession through legislative advocacy
- ▶ Explore new ways to engage students & young physicians
- ▶ Expand CME offerings
- ▶ Continue to expand benefits

We work for your benefit!

Our benefits include:

- Legislative advocacy
- State health agency engagement
- Info updates through weekly ebulletin, Osteofacts
- Quarterly printed publication, Buckeye Osteopathic Physician
- Job board
